EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 42

Series of 2020

AN ORDER CREATING THE DAVAO CITY COORDINATING COMMITTEE FOR METROPOLITAN DAVAO DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES, PROVIDING ITS COMPOSITION, FUNCTIONS AND FUNDS THEREOF

WHEREAS, Davao Region Congressional Representatives pushed for higher budget allocation in 2020 and for the creation of the Metro Davao Development Authority (MDDA) during the CY 2019 Regional Development Council (RDC) XI Advisory Committee Meeting on October 25, 2019 in Davao City, to ensure timely completion of major programs and projects in the Davao Region;

WHEREAS, the local governments of the areas comprising Metro Davao: Davao City; Tagum City, Panabo City, Island Garden City of Samal, and the Municipality of Carmen all in Davao del Norte; and Digos City and the Municipality of Sta. Cruz in Davao del Sur, came together for the creation of MDDA to provide a single direction towards developing the coastal cities and towns along the Davao Gulf;

WHEREAS, the RDC XI as the highest policy making body in the region, created the Metropolitan Davao Development Coordinating Committee (MDDCC) – a special committee to work on inter-LGU joint efforts that include among others: land use planning, tourism promotion and management, Davao Gulf coastal resource management, and joint service delivery for urban facilities and services;

WHEREAS, the MDDCC is a transitory structure for inter-LGU cooperation that serves as a mechanism for coordinated planning, investment programming, project facilitation and monitoring of Metropolitan Davao development initiatives;

WHEREAS, to ensure the effective facilitation and preparation of the LGU towards this regional integration, the creation of the local steering committee aligned with the structure at the MDDCC level and its technical working group, is needed to oversee the implementation and execution of activities relative to the operationalization of the regional agglomeration;
